Greetings, Hiring Manager

I'm contacting you to express my interest in serving as a community moderator for your project. I would be a tremendous contribution to your company because I am a highly motivated guy with excellent customer service abilities and expertise.

I've always gone above and above in my past community moderator responsibilities for the community. I'm sure I can give your customers top-notch service because I naturally know how to forge connections and handle issues.

My knowledge and organizational abilities from my prior position as a community moderator have prepared me to succeed in this position.

I hope that by working with you, I can improve my abilities and help the company succeed. I think I would fit in

Sincerely,
Levi Akachukwu
